FUNERAL SERVICE FOR THE CONFEDERATE DEAD .- Tomorrow, at 9 o'clock, there will be a solemn Requiem Mass at St. Paul's Catholic Church, Sichety prest, for the Confederate dead. A confederate will be taken up on the occasion for the penefit of the orphans.

METHODIST CHURCH IN COURT.—The able argument of Col. Chas. H. Simonton, the distinguished counsel for the defence, will be found on our second page. It was our intention and desire to publish the argument in reply at the same time, but the crowded state of our columns prevents.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU AND THE SEA ISLANDS. —In the communication under the above head in our yesterday's issue, a very important typographical error occorred. In the sentence stating that the policy of the Bureau "has some alienation, distrust and hostility between the negroes and the whites," the words "the negroes" were left out, which gave an entirely different meaning to the centence.

SALE OF GROCERY SUGARS .- Mr. JOSEPH H. RISLEY disposed of yesterday, on Accommodation Wharf, fifty hogsheads of Cuba Grocery Sugars of his own importation, direct from Matanzas, at the following prices:

5 hhds. at 18% cents per pound; 5 hhds. at 18% cents per pound; 5 hhds. at 18% cents per pound; 12 hhds. at 12% cents per pound; 5 bhds. at 12% cents per pound 18 hhds. at 11% cents per pound.

A Touching Incident .- On the 16th Instant, the day of the celebration in commemoration of the Confederate dead, in one of our olly grave yards, after the ceremo nies had been performed and the crowd dispersed, a respeciable looking colored woman was seen to linger behind, sit down upon a grave, bury her face in her hands, and weep bitterly. A friend of curs, who holds with JUVENAL, ("Nitil humanum a se alienum esse") observing her, became very much interested. With native kindliness of manner he addressed her and inquired the cause of her grief. Won by his sympathizing tone, she unburdened her heart to him in alternate words and sobs. The grave on which she gat was that of her former young master, who had been killed In battle during the late war. He had been her charge in his infancy and boyhood, and in his manhood he was her pride and her delight. His deeds of gallant daring had been her boast, and it was the wish dearest to her heart to see him return victorious and honored to the home which he had fought to protect. Heaven had decreed otherwise; and now while a conquered people did honor to the memory of the r defenders, she, poor, helpless, faithful woman, wept over the grave of him to whom she had looked for protection and support in the days of her age and infirmity.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS AND COMMON PLEAS. This Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning, pursuant to adjournment, and proceeded to the transaction of business. Several true bills were found by the Grand Jury on yesterday, and the accused, in the following cases, were arraigned :

lowing cases, were arraigned:

The State vs. James Clear, Michael Stanton, and John Jenkins, charged with burglary and larceny, to-day, the 21st, was assigned for their trial.

The State vs. Thomas Roach, charged, also, with burglary and larceny, and to day appointed for his trial, and The State vs. James Sullivan, accused of larceny.

The State vs. Richard Dubue, for burglary and lar-

The case of the State vs. W. T. LOVETT and HENRY RIGGARD, for retailing spirituous liquors without a license, next came up for trial, and the Jury rendered a verdict of "guilty" as to the latter defendant, and "not guilty" as to the former. After this case was disposed of, Joseph Cavones, charged with the same offence, was tried, and had rendered against him a vervict of "guilty."

The Grand Jury came into Court and presented true bills in the following cases : State vs. HUGH CALLAN, for murder. State vs. JOHN W. FREIZ, for larceny and receiving stolen goods. State vs. G. H. BULWINKLE and JOHN BULWINKLE, for retailing spirituous liquors without ! license; and State vs. J. B. McLurs, Jas. G. Mc-GEELY, and - MILLER, for larceny.

The Jurors were then dismissed; and, after the transaction of some other matters not requiring their services, the Court adjourned to meet this day at 10 o'clock A. M.

PROVOST COURT, June 20 .- United States vs. Paul Pinckney and Michael McBride (colored).-House of the Nile. Breaking.—Thomas Turner, (colored) sworn: At No. 46 Society-street last night, between 10 and 11 o'clock, in the house I hired from Mr. VARDELL; paid him $5 on account of rent; I took his receipt; he told me it was mine; I went into possession same day, and locked it up last night; the defendants broke it open, and I found them there and called a Policeman to take them out; defendant Pinckney said it was his shop; Pinckney formerly occupied it, but has been absent about nine days; the defendant hired it before that, and had been living there about 9 months; there were a few things there belonging to them.

Defendant Pinckney, at request of Court, stated his claim, and made it out very good. Discharged.

In this case Associate Judge McBlair lectured the prosecuting witness on the absurdity of his case, and informed him if he came here with such a case again he, as well as defendant, would be fined.

United States vs. CATHERINE HOFFMAN (white), -Abusive and Threatening Language,-Catherine Rogers (colored) sworn: Defendant said I stole her clothes. We live on the same lot. She called me everything she of specifics for the various ills which fiesh is heir to, and could think of, and said I threatened to set fire to the opinion and wise sentence; "Defendant guilty of abuse and quarrelling with Catherine Rogers. Prosecuting witness and defendant both equally guilty of disturbing the neighborhood, and sentenced to pay a fine of $6 each or to be put to hard labor for five days, subject to the order of the Post Commander."

United States vs. Butcher Gregley (colored) .- John Davis (colored), sworn : I lost $75 middle of last week. also lost a red card of $50 on the Savings Bank of Beau ort. I live on Aiken's Row; have been living there month; no one lives with me but prisoner; I showed the money to prisoner a week before I lost it; missed it last Wednesday; money was in an envelope in a little box; saw the money on Friday, and lent a man $10; it was four days between the time I saw it and the time I lost it; prisoner lived with me four weeks; he works at the ordnance yard; prigoner had no money before I lost mine; afterwards saw him with $1.50 and some paper mine; afterwards saw and a bucket of molasses; prisoner said he had lost a pocket book; asked him to had a pocket book, as he had told me before he had none; said yes, he had found one with a dollar and half in it; last night he said he had bought it? war mail new pocket book. Leah Nowell (colored), sworn: Has not seen prisoner have money; but heard him say that he was going to source dollar to Hilton Head to his wife in a letter, and that went safe he would send fifty dollars. De-fendant not guilty and recommended to be discharged.

MAYOR'S COURT. WEDNESDAY MORNING, June 20. One half the world does not know how the other half lives, and the glimpses that may be had into the life of that other half every morning at the Mayor's Court are not of a character to tempt to a further view. The few minutes spent there this morning were enough to tempt any one belonging to the one half of the world to wish for the callonsness of a Podsnap, which, by the mere waive of an arm, could dismiss the disagreeable other half forever from the mind.

First appeared an abject individual some fifty years of age, without a cost, charged with being found drunk in the streets. He had nothing to say in his defence and was fined $5.

Secondly there appeared a hardened, disgusting look ing wretch, with a beard three days old, and a misshapen mouth beameared with tobacco juice. He also was drunk in the streets, and was fined $5. He depart ed reluctantly, being forced out by the police, while he mumbled some unintelligible protest against the treat ment which he received.

A wretched looking woman, well-known about town se a beggar and a drunkard, appeared against a burly individual, likewise of ill repute, for having beat her which she said was inflicted by the prisoner. But the prisoner said that the woman was drunk and fell out of bed. As neither of them looked as if they could tell the truth, and if the charge was true the crime was too great for the cognizance of the Court, his Honor referred the case to a magistrate.

Last appeared a woe-begone and mortified Rhode Islander, who looked as if he might once have been a decent man. He was caught last night sleeping in a car with negroes. He told a doleful tale of having been in government employ, and now having nothing to do. He promised to use his utmost exertions to reach a more northern latitude, and, with a few words of warning, his Honor discharged him.

AND STILL THEY COME TO SEE. The fam a of Prof. REBRIEFARDT is extending far beyond the limits of Charleston. Persons with impaired sight are coming from the counties of South Carolina and North Carolina and returning home rejoicing that they can see now as in the bright days of youth. The professor's rooms are simost continually crowded, and "still they come."

The subjoined testimonial speaks in very flattering terms of Professor BERNHARDT's skill as an experienced optician:

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

EXAME OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

COLUMBIA, June 19, 1868.)

Sir: I have made full and satisfactory test of the specticles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glass to my eye furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an oculist.
Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage, and gratitude of the public.
Thave the honor to be,

POLAR ROOT BEER-SODA WATER-MINERAL WATER. A new drink, which is very refreshing, known as the Polar Root Beer, for what reason we cannot say, has just been introduced into this city by Mr. E. E. BEDFORD. To judge by the crowd which we saw in his store in King-street, opposite Hasel, just before dark yesterday evening, the said Polar Root Beer is destined to become very fashionable. Mr. BEDFORD has also constantly on hand the greatest variety of syrups manufactured from the original fruits, for the purpose of flavoring the deliclous Sods Water which is daily dispensed to thirsty hundreds at his fountains. He has now as many as twenty different kinds of syrup. Besides Polar Root Beer for the gentlemen and Boda Water for both sexes there can always be had at Mr. BEDFORD's establishment. for the benefit of invalids, Mineral Waters from the most celebrated springs of this continent and Europe, to say nothing of the Egyptian elixir obtained from the source

"Canst thou not minister to a mind diseased, And with some sweet, oblivious autidote, Cleanse the fou' bosom of the perilous stuff That weighs upon the heart?"

Certainly; PLANTATION BITTERS will do it when nothing else will. Melancholy, Depression, Hypoch ondria, Insanity, all spring, more or less, from a diseased stomach, and this Plantation Birters is a sure cure for. There is no mistake about it; Dyspepsia, Headache, Dullness, Ague and Low Spirits must yield to the health-giving and genial influence of the PLANTATION BITTERS. If you are in doubt make one trial and be tuths3 convinced.

HOMGOPATHIC MEDICINES.—The Homosopathic system of me ical practice has become one of the fixed institutions of American society. It can hardly any longer be considered an experiment. #### The Bitter Fruits of Bad Bitters.

Invalid reader do you know what nine-tenths of the bitter compounds you are solicited by the proprietors heed for a moment. They are manufactured from unpurified alcohol, containing a considerable portion of fusel oil, a poison almost as deadly as prussic acid. The basis of the regular tinetures of the Materia Medica is the same. No amount of "herbal extracts" can overcome the bad tendency of this pernicious element. The essence of sound Rye thoroughly rectified is the only stimulant which can be safely used as a component of a Tonic, Alterative and Anti-Bilions Medicine, and HOS-TETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is the only medicinal preparation in the world in which this article is used as an ingredient. Hence the extraordinary effects of this great specific. It gives strength without producing excitement. No other tonic does this. All the ordinary Bitters flush the face and affect the brain. Hosterren's system, promote digestion, and produce sleep. No other tonic so quickly revives the exhausted physical energies restores the appetite and removes the gloom and depression which always accompanies weakness of the
